Correspondence

A thank you from Chairman Micari to State Representative Mary Fortier, ...for returning to "The Commission" in your new role as our State Representative. Thank you also for your informative presentation about your legislative assignments on Human Services, Aging and Higher Education and Workforce Development Committees. I am most certain that your personal and professional background, will serve you well in these legislative oversight responsibilities. I know that you will keep the Commission and our Mission in mind, in all matters involving individuals with disabilities.
