New/Current Business

*Chairman Micari: Regarding the recent report that the Route 229 corridor bus route addition is currently in the Governor's budget, to include stops at Lake Compounce, the Double Tree, and the Adult Education Center; local legislative support is of course imperative.

*The Bristol Rotary Club will again host the Downtown Farmers Market this summer on Saturdays, rain or shine, from 10AM-1PM, June 17th through October 14th at the Centre Square parking lot behind the Bristol Health medical office building. The Commission is invited to renew its participation.

Old Business

Correspondence

Chairman Micari sent a correspondence to each presenter in thanks for explaining their department's "policies, procedures and responsibilities, involving individuals with disabilities and special needs during emergencies."

Response from Officer Alysha Pirog and K9 Frankie: Thank you for having us. It was nice meeting you all. Looking forward to working with you again soon.

Response from Chief Gould: Thank you for the "Thank You." We enjoyed spending time with you all and look forward to future opportunities. Thank you for arranging this great discussion. On behalf of the entire Bristol P.D., we are privileged and honored to serve this GREAT Community. Stay Well, Stay Great!!!
